

I could not imagine not having Air 1 to listen to. There are so few radio stations available in my area that offer the wholesome family friendly content that Air 1 offers. I would hope that other options and routes are taken in regards to the issue at hand. Stations like Air 1 obviously have a huge impact on communities abroad since they are listener supported and commercial free. Please do not remove the few stations out there that offer alternative Christian music. Thank you.